Annual Membership Dues (non-refundable; insert amount) $ _____

- For Scouts returning to Troop 182 $120.
- For new Boy Scouts, including Webelos, joining Troop 182 (includes new Scout package) $120.
- For Boy Scouts transferring, during January 2017 through August 2017, to Troop 182 from another Troop $75.

⇒ For all Scouts new to Troop 182, please enter the name that you want on your engraved plastic name tag:

_____ (Examples: "Bobby Smith" or "Robert T. Smith")

Prepayment of Activity Fees (optional; insert amount) $ _____

- Depending on the frequency and number of activities in which the Scout participates, activity fees¹ can be expected to range from $10 to $30 per month, excluding summer camp and special programs. These fees can be paid on an "as-you-go" basis or a lump sum payment can be made to a "bank" from which these fees will be deducted.² Prepayment is being offered as a convenience to the parents and Scout leaders.
Any fees not spent will be rolled over to 2017-2018 program year, unless you instruct otherwise.

- Commitment to activity fees can be authorized (please check only one)
 - By the Scout or parent
 - Only by the parent

Voluntary Contribution to the Troop³ (optional; insert amount) $ _____

- Your contribution allows the Troop to buy or replace equipment, which is important as our troop continues to grow, and to increase our contingency funds. It is also from these funds that the Troop can subsidize Scouts who need financial assistance in order to participate in Scouting.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE IS AVAILABLE – PLEASE ASK

If you are financially unable to pay for some or all of the dues or fees or need help in equipping your Scout for participation in the program, please contact, in confidence, the Scoutmaster or Assistants.

¹ Activity fees include transportation costs, event registration fees (for camporee, orienteering event, etc.), cost of food and other expendables (such as propane), equipment rentals (such as canoes/kayaks), etc.

² The Troop will enforce financial obligations that are associated with a Scout's commitment to participate in an activity or event, even if the Scout is unable to participate (for any reason). If the Troop spends funds for a Scout to participate, the fee will be assessed unless another Scout replaces the first Scout.

³ Be aware that beginning this year the Troop will pay a $36 "Program Fee" per Scout, to Knox Trail Council, but in return does NOT receive any funding from the Council. The program fee will cover certain camp expenses and adult leader training costs.
